Don't Ask if There's Any Furniture Here that Will Suit Your Home. There is.

There is every grade of Standard Furniture here that is carried by any high standard house. Anything worth doing at all is worth doing well. That is exactly what we think, what we preach, and what we practice.

Complete the Comforts of Your Home from Our Splendid Stock of High-grade Furniture

Our store is arranged so as to make inspection and selection easy and our prices are such that you can insure you absolutely the best value for your money. It is a pleasure to show the beautiful lines that we are carrying in stock.

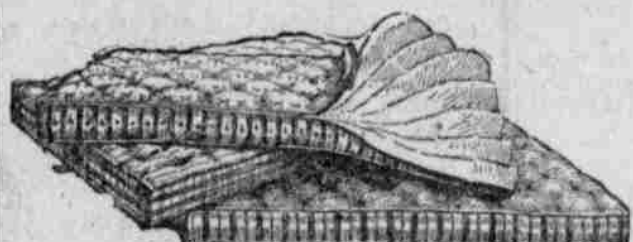

In All Our Departments it is our constant aim to offer only such goods as are superior in quality, workmanship and finish. Bear in mind that we stand back of everything we offer. When we sell you furniture you can bring it back without delay if there is any dissatisfaction or should a mistake occur.

You gain by buying at home. As to cheap goods, our policy on the question of low-priced goods is clearly defined: Unless we can give you value with goods, we do not handle them. Shoddy furniture, no matter how low the price, is not worth buying.

TALK OF THE TOWN

John G. Mascott is passing a few days in Burlington on business.

F. F. Sherbert of Stowe was among the business visitors in the city today.

Joseph Deany of Northfield was among the business visitors in the city yesterday.

R. E. Sandiland of Toronto, Ont., is passing a week in the city on business.

If you want to see and hear some new local talent "artists," come to the band fair all next week.

Emory Newhall left today for Maine, where he will spend a week's hunting trip in the vicinity of Bangor.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pitkin of Boston are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Reynolds of South Main street.

William Halvosa leaves the city tonight for Boston, where he expects to witness the Harvard-Dartmouth football game Saturday.

Walter Boutwell of Averill street resumed work in F. H. Rogers' store yesterday afternoon, after a few days' absence on account of illness.

Ladies' Fur Coats

This is surely Fur Coat weather, and our stock of Ladies' Fur Coats was never better than now.

We have a few Short Fur Coats in pony skin, electric seal and marmot that we will sell at less than one-half the former prices to close. These are Coats that are just as good a value as any Coat we have in stock, but the popular demand is for long Coats.

If you want a good, Warm Coat for street or for a riding Coat, you can surely get a very good Coat for a little money; and while the popular demand is for the long coat, you will see a great many of the short coats and you can get a good warm coat for a small price.

At $10.00 we have a small size Fur Coat that was $35.00. Now, to close, at the small price of $10.00.

At $15.00 are two Ladies' Marmot Coats in a 28-in.-3 length; are a good quality and were a good value at the regular price, $49.00. To close at $15.00.

At $12.00 is one Pony Coat in 36 size; is a good value and sold at $35.00.

WHAT IS WORTHY MERCHANDISE?

Not merely the high-priced articles. High price doesn't always mean high quality. Not merely the low-priced goods. A low price often points to skimmed material. Not merely showy items. A lustrous glaze may conceal a defect. Not merely goods of a wide publicity. Expensive advertising adds to selling cost. Quality merchandise are those goods having the greatest number of value units per unit of price. The fine test for quality goods lies in the "come-back." Worthy can only be said of goods that satisfy trade and pull other business. Our constant aim is to have only merchandise that is worthy, goods that have the true value.

Ladies' Fur Coats

If you want a medium weight Driving Coat of a quality that will stand any amount of hard wear you may want to put it to, you should get one of our Brown Cinnamon Wolf Coats. This Coat is made up with a rat collar and a heavy, guaranteed lining; is a good looking Coat to wear anywhere; looks almost as good as a Marmot Coat, and the price is about one-half as much.

Our line of Pony Coats in black is made by one of New York's largest and best fur houses, and every Coat is thoroughly warranted and if they do not wear well and keep their shape, all you have to do is to bring them back.

Our odd sizes in Fur Coats give you the best fitting Fur Coat you ever wore.

For a medium-priced Fur Coat, we have a full 32-inch Sleeved Coney Coat, in black and brown.

We also carry the Fur Coats in misses' junior size; are just right for small ladies. See our special 34-inch Pony Coat at $50.00.

We have just received a large invoice of those heavy double faced Velvet Coats in the reversible style as well as the plain heavy double faced Coat with the large collar.

Mrs. Joe W. Jackson, who has been with her brother in the hospital at Lewiston, Me., returned to Barre last evening.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Public Scotch dance, Worthen hall, Saturday, Nov. 18, at 8 p. m. Gents, 50c; ladies free.

H. S. Springer of Norwich, N. Y., who has been passing a few days in the city, left this noon for Burlington.

Don't forget the Presbyterian church fair December 14 and 15. It will be the correct time to purchase dainty and useful articles for Christmas. There will also be a fine line of good things to eat, on sale.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Mrs. James Patterson and Mrs. William Scott were in Northfield yesterday, visiting friends.

The Hedding male chorus, composed of Barre's best singers, will charm you with their beautiful harmony at the band fair.

"The Missouri Girl" company, which appears in the city opera house tonight, arrived in the city this morning from Milton.

The electric car leaving Barre at 6:45 last evening jumped the track just before entering on the bridge at Dodge's, and but for the guard rail would have gone into the river. The car had a good number of passengers aboard.

John McCarthy, who has been employed as a meat cutter in Burlington for the past year, has returned to his home in this city and will open a grocery store and meat market in the building on South Main street, formerly occupied by M. J. McGowan as a grocery store. Mr. McCarthy's father, Thomas C. McCarthy, of C street will be a joint owner of the new business. The proprietors expect to open the store for business next week.

One member of one of the acts that come to the Pavilion today is well known to the citizens of Barre. He is Mr. Frank Venett, who formerly sang illustrated songs in two of the moving picture theatres about town. Many will remember him for his excellent tenor voice, and no doubt his many friends will be glad to see him. The act presented by the team, which is known as Rich and Venett, is a comedy singing, talking and dancing offering. In Kelly and Kierny the patrons of the Pavilion will be treated to one of the best singing and musical acts ever offered at that theatre. The act is a big offering and embraces harp solos and high class vocal selections. All of the pictures, which are the same as were shown last night, are good.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Some variety and some class, eh? at the band fair?

We have bought special goods to help our sale, at Fitts'.

Shampoos and facial massages our specialty. Miers' sanitary shop.

The Presbyterian church fair, December 14 and 15. You can get just what you want at this time.

The annual meeting of the Glenugie club will be held in Woodmen's hall Saturday evening, Nov. 18, at 7:30 o'clock.

Wednesday arrivals at the Hotel Otis were as follows: A. L. Green, J. H. Costen, Boston; J. C. Hoffman, New York City; F. C. Horton, Newport, R. I.; G. W. Moxley, St. Johnsbury.

Any others wishing to enter the class of dressmaking, to open Nov. 20, call this week and register; the best chance to learn the trade at little cost. Mrs. Etta S. Richardson, 131 Washington street.

An adaptation of Shakespeare's masterpiece, "Romeo and Juliet," will be shown at the Bijou today. This picture is the last word in the world of moving pictures and is without doubt one of the most interesting and fascinating pictures ever projected on the motion picture screen. Every scene and detail of the story is faithfully portrayed and the acting and portrayal of characters by the Tannhauser Co. is far in advance of anything ever attempted in the silent drama.

Guests registered at the City hotel yesterday and to-day were as follows: E. McCabe, Boston; W. J. Delaney, Woodsville, N. H.; R. E. Emerson, Springfield, Mass.; C. C. Roundy, Randolph; R. B. Lang, White River Junction; Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Edwards, Miss Hilly, Chicago; F. F. Farrell, Zanesville, O.; G. E. Ogilvie, Springfield, Mass.; W. Colton, G. S. Wright, F. W. Stanton, W. D. Milliken, C. C. Mitchell, Chicago; George Carpenter, Winoski; W. E. Bennett, St. Johnsbury; H. P. Hinman, Orange.
